Stingers to present Hockey Hall of Fame with CIAU championship memorabilia

Members of the Concordia Stingers women's hockey team will travel to Toronto on Friday, May 1 at the request of the Hockey Hall of Fame. On that day, head coach Les Lawton, Corinne Swirsky, the outstanding player in Canada; Deana Huyghebaert and Sara Matheson will present the Hall with memorabilia from the inaugural CIAU Women's Ice Hockey Championship. The memorabilia will be part of an upcoming display at the Hockey Hall of Fame.

The inaugural championship was held at Concordia University in Montreal from Feb. 26 to March 1. The host Stingers met the Toronto Varsity Blues in the championship game, which was televised live by both TSN and RDS. Concordia won the hard-fought contest 4-1 to become the first ever national champions.

You are invited to attend the presentation on Friday, May 1 from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. A light lunch will be served. The Hockey Hall of Fame is located at 30 Yonge St., (at Front St. – BCE Place).
